

QUINTON

Big Man on Campus

Once there was a guy named Graham. He grew up in Madison, Wisconsin. When Graham was born, he was a huge baby. He ate over 75 pounds of food for breakfast, lunch and dinner. By the time he was ten, he could lift 500 pounds. When Graham got older, he left his home and got a job weight lifting. He taught many of kids how to get stronger.

Graham spent 12 hours at the gym everyday. It made him so strong that by the time he was 20, he could lift 10,000 pounds. He was the second strongest ~~of~~ in the Universe. But he wanted to be the strongest. The strongest person in the Universe is Big Bruce. He ~~lives~~ lives in another Universe, on a planet called S.P.A.A. which means strong people are awesome.

Big Bruce moved planets for a living. Those things are like nine trillion pounds. Graham hummed up his time 24 hours in the ~~Graham~~ to beat Big Bruce. He tried so hard he even lifted up the basketball court. Graham was now lifting five trillion pounds.

Graham was so proud of himself.
Graham said, "It is now time to meet Big Bruce, and challenge him to a Planet Throwing contest in another Universe. Graham went to NASA and asked for a space ship. They said, yes. Graham got in the space ship and set off for a long journey. It was a long ~~journey~~ lumpy ride, but he made it to S.P.A.A.

While Graham was exploring, Big Bruce was training. Graham went into a gym to train and Big Bruce was there. Graham challenged Big Bruce to a Planet Throwing ~~contest~~ contest, and if Graham won, then he would be the strongest in the Universe.
Big Bruce kindly accepted. Graham and Big Bruce met at the edge of the world to compete. The Referee said, "On your marks, ~~and~~ get set, go!

Graham and Big Bruce got started. Graham ~~was~~ was behind, the Worlds were just to big for Graham.

Big Bruce was so ~~strong~~ strong that the Worlds were like feathers to him. Graham was trying so hard, it looked like his ~~muscles~~ muscles were ~~going~~ going to pop. He did it! Graham threw the World. Now it's his turn. 1 to 7. Big Bruce was about to throw but his ~~thumb~~ fingers slipped. Big Bruce didn't throw the World. It was now Graham's turn. He got a good grip on the World, then threw it. Cops going, it's going, and it's out of here! Graham won. But he's not ~~are~~ moving. Graham said, "I'm going to lay down for a while."
